THE SUPREME COURT OF WASHINGTON

IN THE MATTER OF THE)	SUSPENSION ORDER
)
ADMINISTRATIVE SUSPENSION OF)	SUPREME COURT
)	NO. 202,064-0
ATTORNEYS FOR FAILURE TO COMPLY)
WITH 2022 LICENSING REQUIREMENTS)

Pursuant to the Rules for Enforcement of Lawyer Conduct (ELC), specifically ELC 15.5(b), and Admission and Practice Rules (APR) 11, 17 and 26, and the Bylaws of the Washington State Bar Association (WSBA), the WSBA Executive Director filed a recommendation that the 197 lawyers named therein be suspended from the practice of law for failure to comply with one or more of the 2022 licensing requirements: payment of licensing fees and assessments (APR 17(a)(2)(A), WSBA Bylaws Art. III, Sec. 1.3); failure to file a trust account declaration (ELC 15.5(b), APR 17(a)(2)(E)); and, failure to file a professional liability insurance disclosure form (APR 26(c), APR 17(a)(2)(D)).

The Executive Director's recommendation states that the WSBA delivered 60 days written notice to each of the named lawyers at their last known address of record by certified mail on March 4, 2022. The Executive Director's cover letter for the recommendation also indicates that in November 2021, the Bar mailed to all lawyers who had not signed up for "paperless renewal" a license renewal packet and emailed a renewal notice to all lawyers with an email address. On January 24, 2022, the Bar mailed a reminder letter to lawyers without an email address and emailed a reminder notice to all lawyers with an email address. On February 22, 2022, the Bar emailed a notice to all lawyers not in compliance. On March 4, 2022, the Bar sent by certified mail a Presuspension Notice to all lawyers not in compliance. On April 26, 2022, the Bar delivered a final reminder email to all remaining delinquent lawyers. The recommendation also certifies that the list of lawyers named therein is correct based upon the records of the WSBA.

The Court is satisfied that the following named lawyers have not complied with the 2022 licensing requirements and that they were given the required pre-suspension notice by certified mail.

IT IS ORDERED:

The following named lawyers are administratively suspended from the practice of law in the State of Washington for failure to comply with the 2022 licensing requirements as specified below:
